“The studio art program is located halfway between D.C. and Richmond where art is in abundance and the opportunities to see the real deal are vast and varied. Our majors are doing wonderful things out in the professional world and we couldn’t be more proud of their achievements. Please visit our webpage at: <http://cas.umw.edu/art/> and consider joining our UMW Student Art Association Facebook page. This student-run page features the day-to-day goings on within our department. It is a great place to get a sense of our students as well.” Carole Garmon

New students considering a major in studio art should try to register for ARTS 105 as early as possible.
