Current Catalog Entry
MBUS 555 – Knowledge Management Systems (3)
This course examines the shift from transaction processing to technical, information, and application architectures. Methods for gathering, organizing, sharing, analyzing, and disseminating knowledge to the appropriate levels within the organization for better decision making are discussed in detail.

Proposed Catalog Entry
MMIS 555 – Knowledge Management Systems (3)
Prerequisite: MMIS 500 or equivalent
This course examines the shift from transaction processing to technical, information, and application architectures. Methods for gathering, organizing, sharing, analyzing, and disseminating knowledge to the appropriate levels within the organization for better decision making are discussed in detail. (Credit is not granted for both MMIS 555 and MBUS 555.)

JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)
The revised MBA program does not include the MBUS 555 course. Therefore, changing the prefix from MBUS to MMIS puts the course under the jurisdiction of the MSMIS program.

MMIS 500 will provide students with the appropriate management information systems background needed for this course.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)
The proposed prerequisite course, MMIS 500, is a required core course in the current MSMIS degree program.
