*This course number must be approved by the Office of the Registrar before the proposal is submitted.

Effective Date: FALL Semester, Year 2013

Current Catalog Entry
Prerequisite or co-requisite: EDSE 531. This course focuses on the application of curriculum through teaching and learning models for middle and secondary school classrooms. Lesson planning, interdisciplinary learning and Virginia Standards of Learning for specific subject areas and technology are addressed. This course, co-taught by lead teachers in the specific subject disciplines, allows the prospective special education teacher to explore and develop ways to teach content material in inclusion and self-contained classrooms and to create classroom climates that support learning. Field experience required.

Proposed Catalog Entry

JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)
The course is being revised to provide a singular focus on specific instructional strategies for the special educator when working with students in inclusive classrooms, resource rooms and self-contained classes.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)
No transition necessary.
