JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)

Undergraduate students who have not taken this course will take the 400-level Teaching of Music course instead. This is being done to enhance the course and to be able to cross-list it with the 500-level Teaching of Music course so as to provide a more unified experience for students in all our PreK-12 programs.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)

Starting in Fall 2013, students who are in the preK-12 program will be required to take the 400-level Teaching of Music course if they have not already taken EDUC 318. Students who have taken EDUC 318 will not have to take the 400-level course.
