Current Catalog Entry	Proposed Catalog Entry (suggested length – less than 50 words)
360— The Literature of Resistance (3) Studies in modern literature dealing with current international socio-political conflicts in such regions as Ireland, the Middle East, and South Africa.	360— Postcolonial Studies (3) Studies in contemporary postcolonial literature from Africa, the Caribbean, and South Asia representing the impact of colonialism and its aftermath on individuals, communities and culture.

JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required). Any change that impacts another Department must have a written statement (such as a copy of an email) from the Chair(s) agreeing to the change.

This change broadens the scope of this course, aligns more closely with contemporary discourses in the field, and aligns more closely with the expertise of the faculty member teaching the course.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)

This should not impact students in previous catalogs since this course is an elective in the major in English and the major in English with a concentration in creative writing rather than a required course in these majors.
