Prerequisites: BUAD 283, 300, 310, 350, 381; and business administration major or permission of the Associate Dean for Faculty. A capstone course designed to integrate the student’s study of management. Advanced case studies and simulations prove a series of integrating experiences where students assume the role of the chief executive officer in a variety of organizational sectors (private, public, not-for-profit). Students are required to make managerial decisions concerning formulation of policy, strategy and tactics along with ethical considerations in organizations’ multifaceted relationships with the external environment.
Prerequisites: BLAW 201, MGMT 301, MKTG 301, BUAD 350, FINC 301; and business administration major or permission of the Associate Dean for Faculty. JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)
The College of Business is renaming discipline-specific classes to more clearly communicate which classes belong to which business disciplines. It should make it much easier for students to find and schedule classes of interest to them.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)
We have discussed this with both the registrar and our advisor and there should be no adverse impact to students. Since the same classes will be offered under a more precise name, students under the old catalog can simply substitute the new class for the old (for example, if a student needs BUAD 300, he or she will substitute MGMT 301).
