JUSTIFICATION (including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)
This change supports the elimination of the required course MBUS548, Managerial Economics in the MBA program while retaining Microeconomics as a prerequisite, foundation course for the MBA degree. There is no impact on Majors, Minors, or other courses as these courses were required to gain entrance into the MBUS548 course previously.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)
