

University of Mary Washington

Student Learning Outcomes for Historic Preservation

1. Students will develop skills in identifying, inspecting, evaluating, and documenting historic resources such as structures and artifacts.
2. Students will be able to explain and analyze distinctions of form, time, and space as reflected in historic resources.
3. Students will develop skills in the application of field methods relevant to historic preservation.
4. Students will develop skills in producing hard line architectural drawings.
5. Students will develop skills in using photographic equipment.
6. Students will develop skills in using computers in the analysis and documentation of historic resources.
7. Students will comprehend the multidisciplinary nature of preservation.
8. Students will develop the vocabulary of historic preservation and its processes.
9. Students will develop historic-preservation advocacy and leadership skills.
10. Students will appreciate the evolution of the preservation movement in America.
11. Students will appreciate historic resources in modern society.
12. Students will appreciate the role of material culture in the study of history.