 While most students complete their major electives by taking five 300-level courses, HIST 491 (Independent Study) and HIST 499 (Internship) may, with the chair's approval, be taken as one course of the five. In addition, with chair's approval, one AMST course may be taken as one of the five electives in the major.
 With the chair's approval, HIST 491 (Independent Study) may be taken in lieu of one of the two 400-level seminars
* While 400-level seminars are not offered during summers, the senior project may be taken as a summer course (with a 14-week calendar that overlaps both summer sessions).
