JUSTIFICATION (Including impact on majors, minors, concentrations, and general education courses within the University curriculum; attach additional pages if required)

These changes to the current catalog will clarify which upper-level courses in creative writing serve as prerequisites for seminars in Poetry, Fiction, Nonfiction, and Multi-Genre Writing respectively. Since the existing language fails to illustrate the connection between specific 300-and 400-level courses, students may be confused as to which prerequisites they might need in order to enroll in a seminar of their choosing. Supplementing the catalog description will help to simplify this process.

TRANSITION PLAN (describe how will students who are in Catalogs where the course is required for a major be accommodated; attach additional pages if required)
